Standing Wave by Squidsoup
On display November 8, 2019 – January 5, 2020
Standing Wave uses approximately 600 interconnected orbs of light and sound to create an immersive audio-visual experience, simulating a wave over the controlled urban waters of the Arizona Canal.

Swarm by Toy Studio
On display November 8, 2019 – January 5, 2020
Swarm mimics the flocking behavior found in schools of fish and flights of birds through movement of light. Stretching across the Arizona Canal, a series of programmable LED tubes illuminate at night, dancing and flickering as they express this natural swarming behavior.

Local Light
On display October 26 – December 31
Local Light is a light-based public art initiative and an expansion of Canal Convergence. Indoor and outdoor installations are placed along 5th Avenue, Stetson Drive and Marshall Way to create a path of art and light between the businesses and the Arizona Canal. All installations are created by local artists.

SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY
Saturday, November 30 (All day)
